

AI Act 2024

Navigating the Future of AI Regulation

UPPSALA, DECEMBER 10, 2024

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME

- 8:30-8:35 Welcome by Anna Singer, Dean and Professor, Faculty of Law, Uppsala University.
- 8:35-8:45 Santa Slokenberga, Associate Professor in Medical Law Senior Lecturer in Administrative Law, Faculty of Law, Uppsala University “On the AI Act and this Conference”
- 8:45-9:15 Katja de Vries, Senior Lecturer, Uppsala University “Navigating the AI Act: Key Building Blocks and Challenges Ahead”
- 9:15-9:45 Stanley Greenstein, Associate Professor in Law and Information Technology, Faculty of Law, Stockholm University “Legislating Technology – Addressing the Law’s Internal Dilemma”
- 9:45-10:05 Coffee
- 10:05-11:15 AI Act: values, central pillars, cross-cutting issues
Moderator: Anna Sara Lind, Professor, Faculty of Law, Uppsala University
“AI, values and democracy?”
Speakers:
Lena Enqvist, Associate Professor and Senior Lecturer, Umeå university “AI in Public Administration Through the Lens of the AI Act”
David Törngren, Director for legal affairs , Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (Integritetsskyddsmyndigheten) “The AI Act and the GDPR – the Power Couple of the Digital Decade”
Sandra Friberg, Associate Professor, Senior Lecturer, Uppsala University “AI Act: Forbidden fruits and the quest for responsibility”
- 11:15-11:35 Coffee
- 11:35-12:45 AI and Finance
Moderator: Magnus Strand, Associate Professor of European Law and Senior Lecturer in Commercial Law, Uppsala University
Speakers:
Malou Larsson Klevhill, Associate Professor of Private Law, Luleå University of Technology, and Senior Lecturer in Commercial Law, Uppsala University “EU COM and the 2024 Targeted Consultation on AI in the Financial Sector”
Donal Casey, Associate Senior Lecturer in Commercial Law, Uppsala University “Regulatory Technology, Risk and the AI Act”
Andreas Kotsios, Senior Lecturer in Commercial Law, Uppsala University, and Researcher, KTH “Exploring Trustworthiness in AI within the Financial Sector”

12:45-13:45 Lunch

13:45-15:00 Health research and innovation. Technology governance
Moderator: Ana Nordberg, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law, Lund University

Stella Riad, PhD, Director Data Analysis, RISE “Advanced AI in healthcare: opportunities, challenges and (maybe) solutions”

Hajo Michael Holtz, Senior Lecturer in Commercial Law with a focus on IT Law, Department of Business Studies, Uppsala University “Managing Data for AI, overlaps between the AI Act and the GDPR”

Kacper Szkalej, Senior Researcher in Intellectual Property and Technology Law, Institute for Information Law (IViR), University of Amsterdam
“Innovating in the dark. Is copyright an enabler or disabler of developing AI?”

Olga Tzortzidou, Senior Researcher and Attorney at Law, Biomedical Research Foundation Academy of Athens “Disruptive technologies: closing the innovation and health gender gap?”

15:00-15:20 Coffee

15:20-16:35 AI in healthcare
Moderator: Elisabeth Rynning, former Professor of Medical Law at Uppsala University, former Chief Parliamentary Ombudsman and Justice of the Supreme Administrative Court

Speakers:

Johan Sundström, Cardiologist and Professor, Department of Medical Sciences, Uppsala University “AI for Emergency Care”

Mette Hartlev, Professor, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen “AI in the clinic - Are new patient rights actually needed?”

Santa Slokenberga, Associate Professor in Medical Law Senior Lecturer in Administrative Law, Faculty of Law, Uppsala University “AI and the Medical Law Framework”

Jennifer Viberg Johansson, Associate Professor in Medical Ethics, Centre for Research Ethics and Bioethics, Uppsala University “AI in Healthcare: Ethical Challenges, User Perspectives, and AI Act Implications”

16:35-16:55 Katja de Vries, Senior Lecturer, Uppsala University “AI Act: Implementation, Application and the Road Ahead”