

Uppsala ISLE SUMMER SCHOOL 2026: Bursary application

ISLE has made available a limited number of Bursaries for graduate students/early career researchers who wish to attend in person. We will thus not exclude applications from non-faculty scholars who have already earned their PhD, but those who have not yet earned their PhD will be prioritized. Additionally, we recognize that some groups are significantly underrepresented among linguists working on English, and that it will enrich those fields and society to remedy such imbalances, therefore we will hold matters of diversity, inclusion, and access at the forefront of our selection process.

The Bursary consists of a fixed sum to partly cover travel costs and accommodation; the registration fees are waived from the successful applicants. If you are selected to receive a Bursary, once your in-person registration for the Summer School and your ISLE membership are confirmed*, we will request that ISLE process the payment upon supply of valid receipts and banking details to the ISLE Treasurer, treasurer@isle-linguistics.org. Please send your Bursary application consisting of this form, your CV and a short personal statement as a single pdf attachment to ISLE2026@uu.se by 30 November 2025 at the latest. We will inform you about the outcome of your application as soon as possible thereafter.

Please fill in the information asked for below:

- Name:
- Affiliation:
- Country of residence:
- Employment type (unemployed/part-time/full-time):
- Approximate monthly income (in €):
- Eligibility for funding from your home university or third party:
  - Yes. How much (in €)?:
  - No
- Expected travel cost (in €):

Please also include a copy of your current CV as well as a short personal statement (no more than one A4 page for the latter) addressing:

- a. Motivation to attend. This could include detailing specific workshops that you are interested to participate in, and why.
- b. Academic/research. A clear statement of your research project or interests, and how it stands to benefit from your participation in the Uppsala ISLE Summer School 2026; your current programme and level of study (e.g. what year of graduate/undergraduate studies); your specialization or major; relevant research experience; etc. Ensure that your CV also notes any relevant publications, presentations, research experience, relevant coursework, extracurricular, and/or outreach activities.
- c. Diversity. An indication of whether and how you see your participation increasing diversity, inclusion, and access in the linguistic study of English. This could include commenting on: whether you are based in a low to middle income country; are a member of a group historically underrepresented (e.g. based on gender, race, class, first generation higher education); your participation in activities designed to increase diversity, inclusion and access; your sensitivity to relevant issues; etc.

Save this file on your device and send it to: ISLE2026@uu.se

*For obtaining ISLE membership (free of cost for students), see <https://www.isle-linguistics.org/join>