

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Upcoming thesis defences

Calendar RSS

Subscribe to calendar

JANUARY 2023

18 January, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Cultural Anthropology with Ana Chiritoiu

Content will be announced later.

FEBRUARY 2023

1 February, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Cultural Anthropology with Hans Tunestad

Serious Leisure Imaginaries: The Construction of Tourists, Locals, and Localities in Scuba Diving Tourism.

3 February, 09:15

Engelska parken

Rikard Engbloms dissertation defence

Dissertation defence in Ethnology

15 February, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Cultural Anthropology with Katja Uusihakala

Selectivity, silence and irreconciliation in a postcolonial apology – the case British child migration to colonial Southern Rhodesia.

22 February, 14:15–16:00

Research seminar in Ethnology with Egle Rindzeviciute

Infrastructuring the Soviet Nuclear Culture in Atomic Towns

23 February, 15:15–17:00

Seminar: World War II and the Radicalization of Academic Antigypsyism in Sweden

"World War II and the Radicalization of Academic Antigypsyism in Sweden. A Case of Uppsala University's Researchers"
An Interdisciplinary Seminar Series in Romani Studies.

MARCH 2023

1 March, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Cultural Anthropology with Andrew Canessa

Savages and Citizens: Indigenous Peoples and the Nation State from Thomas Hobbes to Evo Morales.

2 March, 14:15–16:00

Humanistiska teatern

Lecture with Prof Andrew Canessa

We are all familiar with the image of the Indigenous person in forests or mountains living close to and in harmony with the natural environment enjoying a traditional lifestyle distant from the realities of a modern world. The reality is that a clear majority of Indigenous people today live in urban areas.

8 March, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Ethnology with Camilla Asplund Ingemark

This seminar will be in Swedish, please switch the webpage language into Swedish for more information.

15 March, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Cultural Anthropology

Return from the field with PhD student Anastasia Ulturgasheva

22 March, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research Seminar in Ethnology with Camilla Asplund Ingemark

Camilla Asplund Ingemark will present her current folkloristic research project about future genres and climate change. The seminar will be in Swedish.

29 March, 10:15–12:00

Research seminar in Cultural Anthropology with Teresa Connor

“A Land where Time Stood Still? Nostalgia and traders in the former Transkei, South Africa.”

30 March, 15:15–17:00

Cancelled: Romanian Roma Survivors' Recollections of 1942: Deportations to Transnistria with Dr. Ana Chiritoiu

The seminar is cancelled!

Dr. Ana Chiritoiu reflects on the deportation of Romanian Roma to the occupied territories of Transnistria during the Second World War, recorded by Mr. Romeo Tiberiad, and relates the deportation to later waves of displacement. Even though each of these waves of uprooting and persecution differs from the others, when viewed from inside family and community life, their

31 March, 13:15–15:00

Engelska parken

Final Seminar Alexander Sallstedt

Discussant is Gísli Pálsson, Professor Emeritus of Anthropology at the University of Iceland and Formerly Professor II at the University of Oslo. In 2023, he is Fellow at SCAS.

Susann Baez Ullberg will chair the seminar.

APRIL 2023

4 April, 10:15–12:00

Cancelled: Open lecture with Juan M. del Nido -- New technologies and their moral economy of knowledge

5 April, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Ethnology with Jonathan Roper

This seminar will be in English, on the topic: Dictionaries as sources of folklore.

12 April, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Cultural Anthropology with Chakad Ojani

Oceans in the sky: Conservation, infrastructure, and ecologies of fog capture in coastal Peru.

18 April, 15:15–17:00

Engelska parken

Book talk: Burkina Faso seen from below in 2023

April 18th, Uppsala University's Forum for Africa Studies hosts a seminar with Professor Ludovic O. Kibora, Director of Institut des Sciences Sociétés in Burkina Faso, and Professor Sten Hagberg. They will talk about the English edition of their new book Security from below in Burkina Faso Citizen perceptions and perspectives 2023.

19 April, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Ethnology with Malin Stengård

This seminar will be in Swedish, please switch the webpage language into Swedish for more information.

20 April, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Engaging Vulnerability seminar on "Against the polity prism: Tracing an African tensor"

Despite the call to decolonize African studies, remarkably little is known of internal cultural processes driving precolonial history. In the region spanning central and eastern Africa, precolonial kingdoms originated by bending the medicinal tradition of chiefs, who themselves were a special type of healers.

21 April, 13:00

Engelska parken

Adelaida Caballero Ph.D. Defense

Ph.D. candidate in Cultural Anthropology and the Engaging Vulnerability program Adelaida Caballero, defends her dissertation "Shortchanged. Elderly Women Street Vendors in Malabo, Equatorial Guinea."

26 April, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Cultural Anthropology with Lenore Manderson

To be announced

MAY 2023

3 May, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Ethnology with Åmund Norum Resløyken

”Actants, non-human actors, and translation of animism as a model for sustainability”. Language to be decided.

9 May, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Book talk – Minoritarian Liberalism: A Travesti Life in a Brazilian Favela

Professor of anthropological theory Moises Lino e Silva, and Ph.D. student Shen Qing invite to a book talk about Moises' book Minoritarian Liberalism: A Travesti Life in a Brazilian Favela (The University of Chicago Press, 2022).

10 May, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Cultural Anthropology with Anais Menard

To be announced

17 May, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Ethnology with Gurbet Peker

This seminar will be in Swedish.

23 May, 16:30–18:30

Engelska parken

Open Lecture with Professor Lenore Manderson

You are warmly invited to attend Professor Lenore Manderson's Open Lecture "Quintessence: Art, The Elements, and Environmental Change" that will take place on Tuesday 23 May, at 4.30 pm in the Humanities Theatre. After the lecture we will gather for some mingle, chats and drink reception with buffet just outside the Humanities Theatre.

24 May, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Cultural Anthropology with Ugo Corte

Dangerous fun.

31 May, 10:15–12:00

Engelska parken

Research seminar in Ethnology with Jan Turtinen

Jan will talk about working as an analyst with a doctoral degree in Ethnology. The seminar will be in Swedish.